

About the Workshop

5 Steps to Simplify the Endplay

The Basic Idea:

- Understand what is going on in the deal
- Use the Five Steps to implement the endplay
- Recognize a suit better led by a defender –
- Improve your odds even when cards are poorly placed
- Identify the exit card to put a defender on lead – Play the exit card near the end of the deal
- Eliminate the defender's options – Play trumps and side suits before the exit card
- The Throw-in: Put a defender on lead with the exit card – Play the exit card when the defender has no winning options

Even in the face of bad luck there is a way to make the contract that has fascinated bridge players for decades. While learning and practicing this specific skill, you'll notice your declarer play improves!

More Details

- An Audrey Grant workshop is an opportunity to learn the latest bridge techniques and to improve your bridge judgment.
- You will be seated at card tables during the presentation and will have a chance to bid and play specific hands which illustrate the points being presented.
- The most effective and up-to-date teaching methods are used.
- A partner is not required
