INTRODUCTION: TWO-OVER-ONE GAME FORCE

TUESDAY, JULY 9, 2013

Woman's Athletic Club
Chicago, IL

Years ago, if you were playing with a new partner, you might be asked, “Do you play Stayman?” The most popular question today is, “Do you play 2/1 game force?” This is simply a variation of Standard American. Whether or not it becomes part of your bidding system, it’s important to understand what it’s all about, and why so many players are using it.

Many time world champion Eric Rodwell who continues to break one record after another, and is considered by most players to be the world’s foremost theoretician in the game has written several books with David Lindop and Audrey Grant. They collaborated on a book about 2/1 Game Force.

The Better Bridge product line is compatible with 2/1, so it will be easily incorporated into the methods you are already using.

About the Workshop

The workshop addresses five areas of 2/1:

- How the Bidding Message is changed to accommodate 2/1 and get partner to the best game and slam contracts
- When 2/1 applies.
- The Forcing 1NT response and the subsequent auction
- A closer look at major suit raises and subsequent auction
- Becoming comfortable with openers and responders rebids

Better Bridge continues to provide the world’s best bridge information material!

Better Bridge Tip

Bridge is not a standardized test to measure your intelligence – or the intelligence of your partner. It’s a game!
